This information relates to 2023/24:

* The council tax attributable to London Borough of Redbridge includes a precept to fund adult social care. For adult social care authorities, council tax bills show two percentage changes: one for the part of the overall changes attributable to the adult social care precept and one for the part attributable to general expenditure. The calculation of the above amounts are shown in the Council Tax explanatory notes together with discount, exemption and Council Tax Reduction information. To see these and details of how to pay please view online at www.redbridge.gov.uk/counciltax. The Greater London Authority precept has been set by the Mayor of London.

If your account balance is in credit and you require a refund please email council.tax@redbridge.gov.uk and enclose a copy of the top part of your bank statement if you did not pay your council tax by direct debit.

In the interest of efficiency and to provide a more integrated service, information provided for Council Tax purposes may be shared with other departments of Redbridge Council. This information may also be shared with other agencies in accordance with Data Protection Legislation for the detection and prevention of fraud and crime. We retain your information for six years after the last payment on the account when you move out from the borough unless there is outstanding debt or an open fraud investigation.
